

New Addition to FitalPRO's sales team

FitalPRO has appointed Noelle Liu to the position of FitalPRO sales development manager for China.

Noelle is already very well introduced in the Chinese Pro-Audio industry and will focus particularly on the area of Guangdong, the core region for the Chinese Pro Audio Industry.

Noelle, who will cooperate closely with the FitalPRO Sales department in Milan, will be responsible for all FitalPRO accounts in China, working closely with major audio wholesalers, retailers, top enclosure manufacturers and will be able to carry on the already excellent reputation of FitalPRO products in China.

Noelle's efforts will be fully supported by the entire Pro-Audio division at Fital's Head-Quarters and assisted logistically through Fital ASIA (FitalPRO's Gateway to Asia) based in Hong Kong, which makes FitalPRO products readily available to the entire South East Asian region.
