

PROFESSIONAL LOUDSPEAKERS

FaitalPRO at Prolight+Sound 2011 (Frankfurt) 6-9 April

FaitalPRO awaits you at Hall 8 Booth B48 April 2011

As announced at the latest international trade events, FaitalPRO will present this year's main novelties at the forthcoming Prolight+Sound 2011 in Frankfurt (6-9 April, 2011).

FaitalPRO is the professional audio division of the Milanese loudspeaker manufacturer Faital SpA.

ThProlight+Sound in Frankfurt is the biggest event of the sector and where supply and demand meet amidst the several areas of the pro audio markets, with lots of visitors making it a great meeting point for profitable commercial opportunities.

Please save the date to come and see us: FaitalPRO booth B480, Hall 8; as every year you'll have a chance to meet our technical, sales and administrative staff, some of our distributors and see many of our latest products.

As already announced in the past few months, FaitalPRO will be displaying several new loudspeaker designs. FaitalPRO will in particular premiere a brand new line of products: the innovative coaxial loudspeakers HX series.

Flavio Naggi, Overseas Sales Manager stated: "This is also the right venue to officially introduce our recent and important partnership with the new European distributor, Adam Hall, German specialist in components for the Pro-Audio market officially entrusted with the distribution of FaitalPRO products in several European territories."

Announcing also the launch of three new sub-woofers belonging to the High Performance Series: the 12HP1060, 15HP1060 e 18HP1060, plus two high frequencies compression drivers: the HF104 the newly redesigned HF100 along with three revolutionary brand new coaxial loudspeakers 6HX150, 8HX150 e 8HX200, the forerunners of a whole new series.